DJ CASH

Born in the heart of the Midwest DJ Cash developed a strong love for music in his early teens. By his sophomore year in college, he was throwing the hottest parties and events his campus had ever seen. It wasn't long before he became the hottest DJ in the city and now he's taken over the map.

Inspired by legends like Jazzy Jeff, Kid Capri and DJ AM. DJ Cash left the crossroads of America and trekked to the west coast in pursuit of his mission to become a global brand. Today, you'll find him rocking many of the hottest party destinations across the country.

Cash's passion for DJ'n is like no other. His slogan "In Cash We Trust," precisely describes his ability to please the crowd. You can always count on the "Professional Crowd Controller" to give the people what they want.

The Indianapolis, IN native's unique and very enthusiastic style keeps crowds entertained without a doubt. Using an open format technique he calls "NO HOLDS BARRED," Cash constantly provides sounds for top names in the entertainment industry and dauntlessly rocks shows. His keen ability to integrate the perfect balance of hip-hop, house, EDM, rock, pop, nu-disco, indie dance & classic records sets him apart and his distinctive style is what will allow him to emerge into a global DJ.
