SIDEWAYS

Stepping Sideways is the innate ability to pass between this world and the next. If applied correctly this can be the sole difference in taking the spirit far past the human condition. Stepping Sideways is a progressive/hard-rock band with deep spiritual influences. They ultimately seek to ask the questions that can bring someone to the brink of insanity or to the enlightenment that we all look to encounter.

Practically applied, the members of Stepping Sideways looks to bring a new dimension to the music industry in the form of visual/audio storytelling. Each live show is represented by cosmic visuals of a multi-dimensional being who at birth was split into 2 separate souls known as the Traveler and the Dark Traveler.

Our story is represented in 2 forms. Our fiery, colossal live show follows a formatted version of the story that unfolds through visual representations as the music flows smoothly and effortlessly between each song. Connecting each moment in a cosmic battle between good and evil. The second form is through written word. This will be represented by a series of novels written by the founding members of the band. Each album will be released with it's own novel that will tell the story of our main characters. Ultimately ending with the reuniting and ascension of the Traveler and the Dark Traveler through the destruction of the evil force known as "The Sharr."

In their first year Stepping Sideways has made waves in their local scene. The release of their first single "Path of the Hero" has seen multiple press-releases from different magazines such as New Noise Magazine and Vents Magazine. It has also been seen on compilation albums such as "Thumbhole Records: Tracks you Might Have Missed Vol 2." They were also featured on Metaladdicts.com. During that time they have had the pleasure of playing with prominent and famed musicians such as but not limited to:

ANGEL VIVALDI

SCALE THE SUMMIT

ARSONWAVE

Stepping Sideways seeks to give its audience an experience not soon forgotten by any who sees them live. Giving everyone an experience that they will remember and covet for the rest of their lives. In turn they will be able to make waves within all known creative industries.
